

COMMUNICATE WITH CONFIDENCE

A 10-Week Communication Curriculum for Adult English Learners

CEFR Level: A2 – B1

Duration: 10 Weeks | 3 Sessions per Week | 2 Hours per Session

Total Contact Hours: 60 Hours | 30 Sessions

Designed by

Rayene Medabis

Instructional Designer

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Communicate with Confidence is a theme-based, communicatively-driven English curriculum designed for adult learners at the A2–B1 level. Developed by Rayene Medabis, this 10-week programme prioritises relevant, real-world communication across five carefully structured thematic units. Each session is grounded in authentic adult contexts — digital life, professional communication, lifestyle, travel, and critical expression — ensuring that language is always learned in meaningful, purposeful ways.

PROGRAMME GOALS

- Develop learners' communicative competence across a range of real-world adult contexts
- Build vocabulary and grammar in context — as tools for communication, not as ends in themselves
- Foster learner confidence in all four skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing
- Promote awareness of register, tone, and communication norms across digital, professional, and intercultural contexts
- Prepare learners to function independently in everyday English-language environments by programme end

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

By the end of this programme, learners will be able to:

- Use English to communicate in a range of familiar, semi-formal, and cross-cultural contexts with growing accuracy and fluency
- Understand and produce both spoken and written texts on familiar, adult-relevant topics
- Apply functional language for key communicative acts: describing, narrating, recommending, arguing, and presenting
- Demonstrate awareness of register and adjust their language choices according to audience and purpose
- Engage with English confidently in both face-to-face and digital environments

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this 10-week programme, learners will demonstrate the ability to:

- Hold extended, largely accurate conversations on familiar topics with measurably reduced hesitation
- Write short, purpose-driven texts (emails, reviews, bios, recommendations) appropriate to audience and context
- Understand the main points of clearly delivered speech and written texts on familiar matters

- Read and extract meaning from authentic or adapted texts across a range of adult-relevant themes
- Reflect independently on their own language use and identify strategies for continued development

YOU IN THE DIGITAL AGE

Weeks 1–2 | 6 Sessions | 12 Contact Hours

Digital identity, online communication, and media consumption

UNIT GOAL:

Equip learners to communicate effectively in digital English-language environments — from social media profiles to cybersecurity conversations — building confidence with both reading and producing digital texts.

Session 1: Who Are You Online?*Week 1 | Unit 1Building and Describing a Social Media Profile

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Reading, Vocabulary
Key Language	Present simple for facts; personality adjectives; 'I am a... who loves... / I currently work in...'
Materials	Sample social media bios (printed), personality adjective cards, profile-building worksheet

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Describe themselves using present simple and basic personality adjectives
- Identify the key elements of an effective social media bio
- Ask and answer basic personal information questions fluently

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners write a personal bio of 50–70 words using target vocabulary
- Learners verbally introduce themselves using at least 5 personal details
- Learners can name and compare the communicative purpose of 3 social platforms

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

Display 3 anonymous social media bios on the board. Ask: 'What information is shared? What do you notice?' Learners discuss in pairs for 4 minutes, then share with the class. Elicit: job, hobbies, location, personality.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Introduce vocabulary for self-description: profession, hobbies, location, personality adjectives (creative, dedicated, passionate, outgoing). Write sentence frames on the board: 'I am a [profession] who loves [interest].' / 'I currently work in [field].' Model building a bio out loud, inviting learners to supply words. Highlight the difference between Instagram and LinkedIn register.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners complete a gap-fill profile template using their own information. In pairs, they take turns asking 5 questions to verify their partner's profile (e.g., 'Where do you live?' / 'What do you enjoy?'). Class feedback: correct top 3 recurring errors on the board.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Learners write their mini social media bio. They swap with a partner, who must introduce them to another pair using only the bio as a source — no additional information. Listeners ask 2 natural follow-up questions. Rotate once.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Exit ticket: each learner writes two things they would include in a real social media bio and why. Collect for informal formative assessment. Preview Session 2: 'Next time we'll talk about how we communicate in messages and chats.'

TEACHER NOTES

Be sensitive to learners who do not use social media — make clear this is about practising language, not actual online activity. Accept all personal content as valid. Avoid assumptions about platforms used

Session 2: Texting Culture

Week 1 | Unit 1

Digital Messaging, Register, and Online Tone

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Reading, Writing, Speaking
Key Language	Formal vs. informal register; modal verbs for requests ('Could you...?'); common digital abbreviations
Materials	Printed text/WhatsApp vs. email conversation pairs; register comparison chart; messaging scenario cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Distinguish between formal and informal written language in digital contexts
- Write a digital message in the appropriate register for a given situation
- Interpret common texting conventions and recognise tone in written messages

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners write both a formal and informal message for the same scenario
- Learners can explain the purpose of 5+ texting conventions (e.g., lol, omg, ...,)
- Learners correctly identify the tone (e.g., annoyed, friendly, urgent) of 4 sample messages

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCE

WARM-UP 15 minutes

Display two messages side by side: one formal email about a missed meeting, one WhatsApp message about the same topic. Ask: 'Same situation — what is different?' Learners brainstorm differences in pairs: vocabulary, punctuation, length, abbreviations. Record on board.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Introduce the concept of register as a scale: very formal → semi-formal → informal → very informal. Teach key linguistic markers at each level: contractions, full sentences, emojis, capital letters, punctuation choices. Present common texting vocabulary with context examples. Discuss cultural variation in messaging norms.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners receive 3 scenario cards (e.g., 'Tell your manager you'll be late'; 'Tell your friend you'll be late'; 'Tell a new contact you'll be late'). For each, they write one formal and one informal message. Partners compare and evaluate: 'Did they get the register right?'

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Messaging role play: Learner A sends a WhatsApp-style message about a given situation. Learner B must respond appropriately — matching register and tone. They exchange 4–5 messages, then switch roles with a new scenario. Teacher circulates and gives live feedback.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Class discussion: 'Are there unwritten rules for texting in your culture?' Learners share one observation. Teacher adds 3 'messaging rules for English speakers' on the board to consolidate. Preview Session 3.

TEACHER NOTES

Great opportunity to discuss cultural norms around response time, emoji use, and punctuation expectations (e.g., a full stop at the end of a text can feel passive-aggressive in British English). Keep discussion light and curious.

Session 3: What's Worth Watching?*Week 1 | Unit 1Streaming, Shows, and Entertainment Recommendations

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening, Vocabulary
Key Language	Present perfect for experience ('Have you ever watched...?'); 'I'd recommend...' / 'You should try...'; genre vocabulary
Materials	Genre vocabulary chart; 2–3 short show/film trailers (YouTube); recommendation card templates; opinion response phrases

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use the present perfect to discuss past viewing experiences
- Give and respond to entertainment recommendations using appropriate structures
- Describe genre, plot, and personal reactions using descriptive vocabulary

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners recommend a show or film with 3 supporting reasons
- Learners use 8+ vocabulary items related to entertainment (genre, plot twist, binge-watch, subtitles)
- Learners hold a 3-minute fluent conversation about viewing habits

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

Quick class poll: 'What are you watching right now? What's your favourite genre?' Tally responses on the board. Brief discussion: which genres are most popular in the room? Any surprises?

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Introduce genre vocabulary with visual examples: thriller, documentary, reality TV, rom-com, drama, crime series, animation. Teach present perfect for experience: 'Have you ever seen a show that made you cry?' Model: 'I've never watched a horror film because...' Introduce recommendation structures and opinion phrases side by side.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners sort 8 short show descriptions by genre (provided on slips). Then match opinion phrases (e.g., 'binge-worthy', 'slow-burning', 'a real page-turner') to example shows. Class comparison: any disagreements?

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Netflix Pitch' activity: each learner chooses a real show or film and has 90 seconds to pitch it to their group. The group may only ask 2 questions each. Groups vote for which show they'd most want to watch. Debrief: what language made the pitches persuasive?

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Each learner writes one recommendation sentence using today's structures. Collect on sticky notes or slips. Teacher reads a few aloud and gives positive corrective feedback.

TEACHER NOTES

Avoid assumptions about streaming platform access — learners may use YouTube, free services, or DVD. Focus entirely on the language, not the platform. Welcome recommendations in any language context (dubbed shows, subtitled content, etc.).

Session 4: Click, Cart, Review

Week 2 | Unit 1

Online Shopping and Writing Product Reviews

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Reading, Writing, Speaking
Key Language	Comparative/superlative adjectives; evaluation language ('It's worth it', 'I'd avoid...'); hedging ('In my experience...')
Materials	Sample product pages; authentic customer reviews (mixed ratings); review rubric; product scenario cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Read and analyse the structure of authentic product reviews
- Write a short product review with an opinion, supporting evidence, and recommendation
- Use comparative language to evaluate and contrast two products

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners write a structured product review of 60–80 words
- Learners identify opinion language and assess the tone of 3 sample reviews
- Learners compare two products using at least 5 comparative/superlative structures

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

Display a 1-star and a 5-star review for the same product side by side. 'What makes a review useful? What makes it untrustworthy?' Think-pair-share. Elicit: specificity, experience, balance.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach review structure: product description → personal experience → pros and cons → recommendation. Introduce opinion and hedging language: 'In my experience...', 'I was pleasantly surprised by...', 'One downside is...' Demonstrate building a review collaboratively with learner contributions.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners read 3 reviews with different star ratings and identify: the overall opinion, supporting evidence, and final recommendation. Peer check. Class discussion: 'Would you buy this product? Why / why not?'

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Unboxing Review' activity: learners choose any product they own or know well and write a review using the taught structure. They then share it verbally with a partner who must decide: 'Would you buy this?' and explain why.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'What makes a review trustworthy?' — class agrees on 5 criteria. Teacher writes them up. Tie into real-world digital literacy: fake reviews, sponsored content, and how to spot them.

TEACHER NOTES

Encourage learners to think critically about the reviews they encounter online. This session builds both language competence and media literacy. Allow learners to write about any product — personal relevance boosts engagement.

Session 5: Staying Safe Online

Week 2 | Unit 1

Digital Privacy, Cybersecurity, and Safe Communication

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening, Vocabulary
Key Language	Modal verbs for advice ('you should/must/shouldn't'); cybersecurity vocabulary; first conditional ('If you click..., you might...')
Materials	Cybersecurity vocabulary matching activity; infographic on online safety tips; scenario cards; short video clip (optional)

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use modal verbs to give and understand advice about online safety
- Identify and explain key cybersecurity vocabulary in context
- Discuss real-life digital risk scenarios using conditional language

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners can give at least 5 practical online safety pieces of advice using modals
- Learners accurately use 10+ cybersecurity vocabulary items in speaking or writing
- Learners can explain what to do in a common phishing or scam scenario

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

Cybersecurity True or False quiz: 5 common myths (e.g., 'Using public WiFi is safe if the website uses HTTPS.' / 'A strong password needs symbols but not length.'). Learners vote, then reveal answers. Brief class discussion on surprises.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Introduce cybersecurity vocabulary: phishing, data breach, two-factor authentication, spam, malware, password manager. Use visuals to anchor meaning. Teach modal verbs on a strength scale: 'must' (essential) → 'should' (advisable) → 'might want to' (suggested). Model advice-giving with target vocabulary.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Pair activity — 'Cybersecurity Advisors': each pair receives 3 scenario cards (e.g., 'Your friend uses the same password for everything'). They write advice using modals and share with another pair who evaluate the suggestions.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Digital Safety PSA' (Public Service Announcement): small groups of 3 prepare and deliver a 2-minute spoken guide: 'Top 5 Things You Must Know to Stay Safe Online.' Groups present to the class. Light peer assessment: most useful, clearest language.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Exit card: 'One thing I will change about my digital behaviour after today is...' Learners share voluntarily. Teacher closes with a key message: digital literacy is a life skill.

TEACHER NOTES

Sensitive topic — some learners may have experienced scams or identity theft. Keep tone empowering, not alarming. Do not ask learners to share personal incidents. Focus on practical strategies and language, not on creating anxiety.

Session 6: Unit 1 Review & Digital Challenge

Week 2 | Unit 1

Consolidating and Applying Unit 1 Language

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	All four skills (integrated)
Key Language	Review of all Unit 1 language: present simple/perfect, modals, adjectives, register, digital vocabulary
Materials	Unit 1 vocabulary revision card set; 'Digital Me' portfolio template; communication challenge task packs; peer checklist

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Consolidate Unit 1 vocabulary and structures through active recall and application
- Complete an integrated communication challenge using digital language in context
- Reflect on personal strengths and areas for growth from Unit 1

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners successfully complete a multi-part 'Digital Me' portfolio task
- Learners demonstrate confident use of Unit 1 vocabulary in spontaneous speech
- Learners identify 2 personal strengths and 1 development area using reflective language

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCE

WARM-UP 15 minutes

Team vocabulary relay: in groups, learners race to write all Unit 1 vocabulary from memory on a whiteboard or paper. First team to correctly recall 20+ items wins. Fast, competitive, energising.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Brief class-voted review: teacher asks 'What was hardest from Unit 1?' Top 2 answers receive a focused 5-minute mini-lesson. Address common errors collected across the week. No new content — consolidation only.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

'Digital Me' portfolio task: learners write three short texts — (1) a social media bio, (2) a product review, (3) an online safety tip of their choice. Teacher circulates, gives individual written feedback on drafts.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Communication challenge: learners are given a scenario that blends all Unit 1 themes (e.g., 'You met someone online who wants a product recommendation and advice on staying safe while shopping'). They must communicate this in character through spoken interaction. Informally observed by teacher.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Self-reflection circle: 'What can I do now that I couldn't do two weeks ago?' Peer feedback using a simple observation checklist. End with positive acknowledgement of the group's progress.

TEACHER NOTES

Keep this session celebratory and low-pressure. The portfolio task produces informal evidence of progress. Emphasise growth, not gaps. This is a great session to note key observations for your own ongoing assessment records.

WORK SMARTER

Weeks 3–4 | 6 Sessions | 12 Contact Hours

Professional communication, job applications, interviews, emails, and modern workplace dynamics

UNIT GOAL:

Develop learners' professional English communication skills across key workplace contexts — from crafting a job application to participating in a meeting — with a focus on appropriate register and confidence.

Session 7: The Job Hunt

Week 3 | Unit 2

LinkedIn Profiles, Job Ads, and Professional Self-Presentation

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Reading, Writing, Vocabulary
Key Language	Present perfect and simple for experience; skill-describing structures; 'I have experience in... / I am currently seeking...'
Materials	Sample LinkedIn profiles (printed); 3 job advertisements; professional vocabulary bank; profile summary template

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Read and extract key information from job advertisements and professional profiles
- Write a short professional summary describing background, skills, and goals
- Use appropriate vocabulary and register for professional self-presentation

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners write a professional profile summary of 60–80 words
- Learners identify the 4 key components of a job advertisement
- Learners accurately describe 5+ professional skills using target vocabulary

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCE

WARM-UP 15 minutes

'Dream Job Auction': teacher displays 6 diverse job advertisements on the board. Learners are given 100 imaginary points and bid on the job they'd most want. After the auction, each learner explains their choice in 2 sentences.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach job-search vocabulary: requirements, qualifications, responsibilities, deadline, shortlist, apply. Introduce the present perfect and past simple for summarising experience: 'I have worked in... for X years.' / 'I designed... which resulted in...' Contrast informal and professional register using two self-descriptions of the same person.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners read one job ad and identify: job title, main responsibilities, required experience, and application instructions. Then they write 3 matching sentences using taught structures: 'I have... / I am... / I can...' Peer check and share.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Learners write a short professional profile for a job they would genuinely like. Peer review using a checklist: Does it mention skills? Experience? A professional goal? Is the register appropriate? Partners give one positive and one improvement comment.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Red Flags in a Job Ad' — class discusses 4 sample job ads. Which ones seem suspicious? What language is misleading? Critical thinking meets vocabulary consolidation.

TEACHER NOTES

Be sensitive to learners who may be unemployed or frustrated with the job market. Keep the tone aspirational and practical. Emphasise that this is about building language confidence — the skills transfer to many real-world situations.

Session 8: Ace the Interview

Week 3 | Unit 2

Job Interview Language and Strategies

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening
Key Language	Past simple for narrating experience; STAR method (Situation-Task-Action-Result); filler phrases ('That's a great question... / What I mean is...')
Materials	Interview question cards; STAR structure handout; model answer transcript; peer feedback sheet

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Respond to common interview questions with structured, confident answers
- Use the STAR method to narrate a relevant professional experience
- Use filler phrases and manage speaking time appropriately under pressure

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners answer 5 common interview questions with coherent, focused responses
- Learners produce one STAR-structured answer for a behavioural question
- Learners demonstrate awareness of tone, pacing, and professional body language

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCE

WARM-UP 15 minutes

'Interview Myths or Facts?': teacher reads 5 interview myths (e.g., 'Always say your weakness is working too hard.' / 'Salary should never be mentioned first.'). Class votes and discusses. Lively and opinion-driven.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Introduce common interview questions: tell me about yourself; why do you want this job; what is your biggest weakness; describe a challenge you overcame. Teach the STAR method with a visual diagram. Model a strong and a weak answer to the same question. Class identifies what made the strong answer effective.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

In pairs, learners pick 3 interview question cards and take turns answering using STAR. After each answer, the listener gives structured feedback: 'I understood your situation clearly / I wasn't sure what the result was.' Teacher monitors and models.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Mock interviews: groups of 3 — one interviewer, one candidate, one silent observer with a feedback checklist. 5-minute interview, then roles rotate. Teacher circulates and gives feedback between rounds.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'What was the hardest question?' — class reflects. Which filler phrases helped? What tense errors were common? Teacher records top 3 language points on the board for reference.

TEACHER NOTES

Normalise nervousness about interviews — validate it as universal. Emphasise language strategy over performance perfection. Some learners may come from cultures with very different interview norms; acknowledge variation respectfully.

Session 9: Write It Right

Week 3 | Unit 2

Professional Emails and Workplace Written Communication

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Writing, Reading
Key Language	Formal opening/closing phrases; polite requests with passives ('It would be appreciated if...'); hedging and sequencing
Materials	Email sample set (good and poor examples); rewriting task sheet; professional phrase bank; 'email structure' reference card

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Write a clear professional email using appropriate structure, tone, and register
- Identify and correct common errors in workplace written communication
- Use formal language features including passive constructions for politeness

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners write a professional email for a given work scenario (inquiry, follow-up, or complaint)
- Learners rewrite an informal email into professional language with accurate structure
- Learners can identify and name 4+ features of effective professional email structure

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Email Horror Show': display a poorly written, unprofessional work email (teacher-created, not authentic). Learners identify every problem they can find — grammar, register, structure, tone. Class competition: who spots the most errors?

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach email structure: subject line → greeting → opening context → body → closing statement → sign-off. Present a professional phrase bank for each section. Introduce passive structures for polite requests: 'It would be greatly appreciated if...' / 'You are kindly requested to...' Distinguish semi-formal from fully formal register.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners rewrite the 'horror show' email from the warm-up, applying everything they've learned. Compare rewrites with a partner: did they make the same choices? Discuss differences. Class shares best versions.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Learners write an original professional email using a scenario card (e.g., 'Email a company to enquire about a job posting you found online.'). Peer review using a 5-point structure checklist: subject line, opening, body, closing, sign-off.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Dos and Don'ts of Professional Email': each learner contributes one item. Teacher compiles them into a class list on the board. Photograph and share digitally if possible.

TEACHER NOTES

Many adult learners need this skill urgently for work or study. Keep scenarios as authentic and immediately applicable as possible. Offer an optional extension: learners may write about a real professional communication need of their own.

Session 10: The New Workplace

Week 4 | Unit 2

Remote Work, Hybrid Offices, and Modern Work Routines

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening, Vocabulary
Key Language	Present simple for routine vs. present continuous for current situations; time expressions; work-life balance vocabulary
Materials	Remote work statistics infographic; 'A Day in the Life' reading text; preference survey sheet; discussion scenario cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Describe a daily work routine using appropriate tenses and time expressions
- Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of remote and hybrid work
- Express personal preferences about work environments using hedged language

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners describe their ideal workday using at least 8 time expressions
- Learners give 3 advantages and 3 disadvantages of remote work with supporting language
- Learners participate in a 4-minute discussion on workplace preferences with minimal teacher support

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Would You Rather?' — Office or home office? Stand up for office, stay seated for home. Count votes, then ask 5 learners to defend their position in 1 sentence each. Quick, energetic, opinion-based.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach modern workplace vocabulary: remote, hybrid, co-working space, check-in meeting, time zone challenge, work-life balance, deadline, flexible hours. Contrast present simple (habitual: 'I start at 8am.') and present continuous (current/temporary: 'I'm working from home this month.'). Discuss how work norms have changed post-2020.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners read 'A Day in the Life of a Remote Worker'. Answer 6 comprehension questions. Then compare it to their own daily routine in pairs, using sentence frames: 'Unlike them, I usually...' / 'Similarly, I tend to...'

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Design Your Ideal Workday' — learners plan and describe their perfect workday in detail (timing, environment, tasks, breaks) and pitch it to a partner as if applying to a company that offers flexible arrangements.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Class discussion: 'Is remote work the future of every industry? What are the limits?' 5-minute open discussion. Teacher prompts use of target vocabulary.

TEACHER NOTES

Be inclusive of learners in non-office roles — adapt examples to include service, retail, healthcare, and freelance contexts. Remote work may not be relevant to everyone; invite learners to describe their own real work contexts.

Session 11: Let's Meet

Week 4 | Unit 2

Workplace Meetings, Presentations, and Professional Small Talk

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening
Key Language	Meeting discourse markers ('I'd like to add...'); small talk topics and taboos; presentation openers ('Today I'll be covering...')
Materials	Meeting scenario cards; small talk question bank; mini-presentation prompt cards; peer observation checklist

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use appropriate language to participate in a workplace meeting or discussion
- Begin, maintain, and close a professional small talk conversation
- Deliver a structured 2-minute workplace mini-presentation

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners contribute at least 3 structured turns in a simulated meeting
- Learners sustain a small talk conversation for 2+ minutes using taught strategies
- Learners open a mini-presentation using at least 2 professional discourse markers

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Small Talk Bingo': learners mingle and find a classmate who matches each square on their bingo card (e.g., 'Has worked in two different countries.' / 'Prefers working in the morning.'). First to complete a row calls 'Bingo!' Great for energy and natural interaction.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach meeting phrases: agenda, action point, 'Going back to my earlier point...', 'I'd like to build on what you said...', 'Shall we move on?' Introduce small talk safe topics (weekend, weather, food, recent events) and professional taboos. Model a meeting opening and a presentation opener.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Simulated meeting: teacher presents a light agenda (e.g., 'Planning an optional team social event'). Learners take turns contributing using taught phrases. Teacher monitors and models in-the-moment corrections without interrupting flow.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Groups of 3: each learner delivers a 2-minute mini-presentation on a work-related topic of their choice (e.g., a skill they have, a tool they use). Others complete a peer observation checklist focusing on opening, structure, and professional language.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Small Talk Survival Kit': class collectively compiles their top 5 small talk questions for a new workplace. Teacher records. Discuss: why does small talk matter professionally?

TEACHER NOTES

Small talk norms vary enormously by culture. Some learners may come from professional contexts where small talk with colleagues is unusual or even considered disrespectful. Discuss this openly and position small talk as a professional skill, not a cultural superiority.

Session 12: Unit 2 Review & Workplace Simulation

Week 4 | Unit 2

Integrating Professional Language in a Realistic Scenario

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	All four skills (integrated)
Key Language	Unit 2 full vocabulary and structure review: professional register, STAR, email phrases, meeting discourse
Materials	Role-play scenario packs; vocabulary revision game cards; peer feedback sheets; station instruction cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Demonstrate professional communication competence in a multi-stage workplace simulation
- Apply Unit 2 vocabulary and structures accurately across different professional contexts
- Provide and receive structured peer feedback using professional observation language

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners complete a 3-stage professional scenario: interview → email → meeting
- Learners give structured peer feedback using at least 3 observation phrases
- Learners demonstrate measurable improvement in professional register consistency

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCE

WARM-UP 15 minutes

'Workplace Vocabulary Race': two teams. Teacher calls a category (e.g., 'interview phrases' / 'email openers'). First team to write 5 correct items on the board wins the round. Best of 5.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Brief teacher-led recap of the top 3 most-discussed errors from Sessions 7–11. Introduce the day's simulation context: 'You are all new employees at a company on your first week.'

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners rotate through 3 stations (8 minutes each): Station 1 — conduct or experience a short interview; Station 2 — write a professional follow-up email; Station 3 — participate in a team meeting to solve a workplace problem.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Full-group simulation: groups take on workplace personas and must resolve a realistic scenario (e.g., a delayed project affecting a client). They must communicate across all channels covered in Unit 2. Teacher observes and takes notes.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Portfolio moment: each learner selects their best writing piece from Unit 2 and writes a 2-sentence reflection: 'I chose this because... / What I want to improve is...'

TEACHER NOTES

Keep the simulation fun and collaborative — not competitive. Encourage creative use of professional personas. This is also a good session to gather informal assessment evidence across all four skills.

UNIT 3

BODY, MIND & LIFESTYLE

Weeks 5–6 | 6 Sessions | 12 Contact Hours

Food and wellness culture, mental health vocabulary, fashion, home life, and leisure

UNIT GOAL:

Build learners' ability to discuss everyday personal choices — what they eat, how they move, how they feel, how they live — with fluency, appropriate vocabulary, and cultural awareness.

Session 13: Food, Glorious Food

Week 5 | Unit 3

Food Trends, Restaurants, Diets, and Taste Vocabulary

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Reading, Vocabulary
Key Language	Descriptive food adjectives (savory, tangy, rich, bland, spicy); restaurant language; expressing food preferences
Materials	Restaurant menu samples; adapted article on food trends; taste description cards; discussion prompt deck

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use descriptive vocabulary to discuss food, taste, and eating habits in detail
- Express and justify food preferences, including dietary choices
- Navigate a restaurant interaction as both customer and server

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners describe a dish or meal using at least 6 food adjectives
- Learners complete a restaurant role play using taught functional phrases
- Learners discuss a food trend for 3 minutes using supporting opinions

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Food or Not Food?': display 8 images of unusual or unfamiliar foods from around the world. Learners react and describe: 'It looks... / It smells like it might be... / I would/wouldn't try it because...' Brief class shares.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach taste vocabulary with tactile examples where possible: savory, spicy, bland, rich, tangy, bitter, sweet, smoky. Introduce restaurant language: dietary requirements, portion size, recommendation, allergen, bill. Discuss food trends: plant-based, fusion cuisine, farm-to-table, street food.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Restaurant role play script with gaps: learners complete it using taught vocabulary, then act it out in pairs. Teacher gives modelled corrections. Pairs then try again without the script.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'The Food Critic': learners describe their favourite dish as if writing a review for a restaurant guide — no visuals, only words. Partners try to imagine the dish. Class votes on the most vivid description.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Cultural food share: each learner names one food tradition from their culture that others may not know. Teacher records on the board. Brief discussion: how does food reflect identity?

TEACHER NOTES

Be culturally sensitive — avoid assumptions about dietary restrictions, halal/kosher needs, allergies, or food access. Acknowledge and celebrate diverse food cultures equally. Do not single out or over-focus on any one tradition.

Session 14: Move Your Body

Week 5 | Unit 3

Fitness Trends, Wellness Routines, and Health Goals

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening, Vocabulary
Key Language	Frequency adverbs; collocations with do/go/play for sports; goal-setting language ('I'm trying to... / My aim is to...')
Materials	Fitness app screenshot samples; adapted wellness article; habit tracker template; pair discussion cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use frequency adverbs and sport collocations to describe fitness habits accurately
- Talk about a personal health or wellness goal using goal-setting language
- Discuss a fitness trend critically, using supporting reasons and language

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners describe their current fitness routine in at least 5 sentences
- Learners set and explain a personal wellness goal using taught structures
- Learners discuss one fitness trend and give a reasoned opinion of it

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

Fitness Fact or Myth Quiz: 5 statements about exercise and health. Learners vote true or false and defend their answers. Reveal correct answers. Discussion: where did these ideas come from?

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach sport/activity collocations: do yoga/pilates/martial arts; go jogging/swimming/cycling; play basketball/tennis/football. Introduce frequency adverbs in context: 'I rarely... / I tend to... twice a week.' Discuss wellness culture vocabulary: step count, mindfulness, rest day, burnout, self-care.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

'Wellness Interview': learner pairs conduct an 8-question interview about each other's routines, habits, and goals. They then summarise their partner's lifestyle in 3 sentences and share with another pair.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Design a 7-Day Adult Wellness Challenge': groups of 3 design a realistic challenge for busy adults (e.g., 'Walk 7,000 steps each day' / 'Cook one new meal'). Groups present their challenge using persuasive and instructional language.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Each learner commits to one wellness goal using the frame: 'This week, I am going to [action] because [reason].' Written and optionally shared aloud. Brief positive reinforcement.

TEACHER NOTES

Handle this topic with care — avoid any language or activities that could reinforce body image issues, diet culture, or fitness shame. Frame everything around wellbeing, energy, and enjoyment. Accept all fitness levels and lifestyles as valid.

Session 15: The Mind Matters

Week 5 | Unit 3

Stress, Mental Wellbeing, and Work-Life Balance

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening, Writing
Key Language	Vocabulary for emotional states (stressed, overwhelmed, burnt out, calm, grounded); advice modals; first conditional
Materials	Mental health vocabulary cards; anonymous stress scenario cards; adapted article on work-life balance; reflection journal prompt

- Use vocabulary to identify and describe emotional states and mental wellbeing concepts
- Discuss stress and balance in a supportive, empathetic way
- Give contextually appropriate advice using modal verbs and conditional structures

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners correctly use 6+ emotional state vocabulary items in context
- Learners participate in a 4-minute conversation about stress using appropriate, sensitive language
- Learners write a 3-sentence reflection on work-life balance using target language

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Stress-o-Meter': learners rate how stressed they are on a scale of 1–10 this week and share one reason (optional, anonymous option available). Teacher normalises and validates. Brief discussion: 'Is stress always bad?'

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Introduce mental wellbeing vocabulary in a destigmatised, matter-of-fact tone: stressed, overwhelmed, anxious, calm, grounded, burnt out, resilient. Discuss what 'work-life balance' means practically. Model advice using modals and conditionals: 'If you're feeling overwhelmed, you could try... / It might help to...'

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners read 3 anonymous short 'stress stories' (teacher-written) and write advice using modal verbs. Share responses in pairs: 'Is this advice realistic? Is it kind?' Class feedback.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Group discussion: 'What do adults need more of to stay well?' Learners discuss in groups of 3–4 for 6 minutes, then report back to the class. Focus on fluency and appropriate, sensitive language use.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Optional journaling moment: 'One thing I do for my mental wellbeing is...' Private writing, 3 minutes. Teacher does not collect. Voluntary sharing. Close with a normalising statement.

TEACHER NOTES

Approach with genuine care. Do not push learners to share personal difficulties. Keep language general but empathetic. This is a topic that adult learners particularly value discussing in English — it validates both language development and emotional intelligence.

Session 16: Style & Identity

Week 6 | Unit 3

Fashion, Personal Appearance, and Self-Expression

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Vocabulary, Reading
Key Language	Appearance and clothing vocabulary; opinion structures ('I tend to prefer... / I'm drawn to... / Personally, I think...')
Materials	Diverse fashion image set; opinion expression cards; style vocabulary chart; short adapted fashion article

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use descriptive vocabulary to discuss clothing, personal style, and self-expression
- Express and justify opinions about fashion and dress using appropriate structures
- Discuss fashion as a cultural, social, and identity-related topic

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners describe an outfit or personal style using 8+ vocabulary items
- Learners express and defend a fashion opinion with at least 2 supporting reasons
- Learners discuss fashion as a cultural topic for 3+ minutes

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Who's Wearing It?' — display 5 anonymous outfit images. For each, learners guess: 'Where is this person going? What does this style say about them?' Encourage descriptive language and speculation.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach clothing and style vocabulary across contexts: casual, business, formal, streetwear, modest fashion, vintage. Introduce opinion structures and present diverse fashion aesthetics — including abayas, traditional dress, cultural garments — with equal appreciation. Discuss fashion as language: what do our choices communicate?

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

'Agree or Disagree?' discussion activity: learners discuss 6 fashion statements in pairs (e.g., 'Dress codes should be allowed at work.' / 'Fast fashion is an individual problem.'). Each must use at least one opinion phrase from the taught bank.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Style Profile': learners write and then speak about their personal style — what they wear, why, and what impression they want to give. Partners ask 2 follow-up questions. Groups share the most interesting answer.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Class 'Style and Identity' word cloud: learners call out vocabulary from the session, teacher writes it up. Final reflection: 'Can fashion be a form of communication?' One-sentence written response each.

TEACHER NOTES

Ensure materials include diverse fashion aesthetics — not only Western or European. Celebrate all forms of dress as equally valid expressions. Be mindful of learners who may not feel comfortable discussing appearance; frame around language and ideas, not personal critique.

Session 17: Home Is Where the Heart Is

Week 6 | Unit 3

Describing Living Spaces, Routines, and Housing Preferences

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Vocabulary, Writing
Key Language	Prepositions of place; descriptive adjectives for spaces (cozy, spacious, cluttered, minimalist); 'I'd love... / Ideally, my home would...'
Materials	Floor plan templates; home vocabulary chart; photos of diverse living spaces; 'Dream Home' description worksheet

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Describe a living space using spatial vocabulary and prepositions of place
- Express housing preferences using appropriate wish/preference structures
- Compare different types of living spaces and lifestyles using comparative language

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners describe their current or ideal home in a clear 1-minute spoken description
- Learners accurately use 10+ vocabulary items related to rooms, furniture, and space
- Learners compare two living spaces using at least 4 comparative structures

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCE

WARM-UP 15 minutes

'Home or Not Home?' — display images of unusual homes: a tiny house, a boat, a loft apartment, a traditional rural dwelling, a treehouse. Learners react and discuss: 'What makes a place feel like home?'

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach rooms, furniture, and spatial vocabulary. Model prepositions of place with a drawn floor plan: 'The bedroom is next to the bathroom. The kitchen overlooks the garden.' Introduce preference structures: 'I'd love a home that...' / 'My ideal space would be...' Teach descriptive adjectives: cozy, spacious, minimalist, cluttered, airy, compact.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Listening/description activity: learner A describes a room using a floor plan. Learner B must draw it based on the description alone. Compare drawings to original. Discuss: what was unclear? What prepositions were missing?

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Dream Home Pitch': learners describe their ideal living space — its design, feel, location, and why it suits their lifestyle. Partners ask 2 follow-up questions. Short class share.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Home Around the World' — brief cultural exchange. How does housing differ across the group's home countries? What do learners miss about home? 3-minute class discussion.

TEACHER NOTES

Sensitive to learners who may be in challenging housing situations. Keep tone aspirational and accept a wide range of 'ideal' homes. Emphasise that all living situations are valid — the session is about language for describing and discussing space, not about judging lifestyles.

Session 18: Unit 3 Review & Lifestyle Discussion

Week 6 | Unit 3

Consolidating and Applying Unit 3 Language in Open Discussion

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	All four skills (integrated)
Key Language	Unit 3 review: food/health/style/home vocabulary; frequency language; preference and opinion structures
Materials	Discussion prompt deck; Unit 3 vocabulary revision cards; peer observation checklist; 'My Ideal Week' worksheet

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Consolidate Unit 3 vocabulary and functional language through active discussion
- Engage in extended discussions across lifestyle themes with reduced teacher support
- Reflect on language growth in the area of personal and lifestyle communication

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners lead and contribute meaningfully to a 6-minute group discussion
- Learners demonstrate active use of Unit 3 vocabulary in spontaneous speech
- Learners complete a self-assessment of Unit 3 confidence across all themes

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCE

WARM-UP 15 minutes

'Lifestyle Bingo': learners mingle and find classmates who match lifestyle habits on their bingo card (e.g., 'Cooks their own meals most days.' / 'Has tried a new sport in the last year.'). Fun, active, uses unit vocabulary naturally.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Group quiz game for vocabulary recall — two teams, teacher-moderated. Brief review of the 2 most-requested structures from the unit (voted on by learners at the start). No new content.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Discussion carousel: 4 stations, each with a lifestyle topic card (Food & Trends / Fitness & Wellbeing / Style & Identity / Home & Routines). Groups rotate every 8 minutes, adding new arguments or ideas each round. Teacher observes and takes informal assessment notes.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'My Ideal Week': learners describe their perfect 7-day week in detail — meals, movement, work, hobbies, social plans, rest — as a 2-minute spoken monologue. Partners listen and ask one follow-up question.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Peer feedback using a focused checklist: vocabulary range, fluency, appropriateness of language. Each learner writes a 2-sentence self-assessment: 'I am most confident talking about... / I want to develop my language for...'

TEACHER NOTES

Use this session as an informal assessment opportunity — note fluency, vocabulary range, and confidence across learners. The carousel format naturally generates observation data. Keep the atmosphere positive and discussion-focused.

OUT IN THE WORLD

Weeks 7–8 | 6 Sessions | 12 Contact Hours

Navigation, travel planning, airport and hotel interactions, and intercultural communication

UNIT GOAL:

Develop learners' confidence communicating in English in real-world travel and cross-cultural contexts, from giving directions to navigating cultural differences in communication styles.

Session 19: Finding Your Way*Week 7 | Unit 4City Navigation, Directions, and Local Services

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening, Vocabulary
Key Language	Imperatives for directions ('Turn left at...'); prepositions of movement; polite request structures ('Excuse me, could you tell me how to get to...?')
Materials	City map (printed — real or fictional); direction-giving task cards; landmark photos; listening transcript

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Ask for and give directions using appropriate language and landmarks
- Use prepositions of movement to describe a route clearly
- Navigate an urban scenario through spoken interaction with a stranger

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners give accurate directions from one location to another using 5+ landmarks
- Learners complete a listening-based direction-following task successfully
- Learners politely and naturally ask a stranger for navigational help

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Worst Directions Ever': learners share or imagine the most confusing directions they've given or received. What went wrong? What was missing? Funny, relatable warm-up that activates existing language.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach direction vocabulary: straight ahead, turn left/right, go past, cross the road, take the second turning, at the roundabout, near the junction. Introduce polite request openers. Model a full direction dialogue with a visual map. Highlight the use of landmarks vs. compass points.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Listening task: learners follow spoken directions on a printed map and mark the destination. Then reverse the task: one learner reads written directions aloud while the other traces the route. Switch.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'City Maze': in pairs, Learner A must guide Learner B from a marked start to a marked destination using only verbal directions (no pointing, no writing). Then switch. Challenge round: add an obstacle or detour.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Google Maps vs. Asking a Local': class discusses the pros and cons of each. Brief, fun, consolidates directional vocabulary in a natural conversational context.

TEACHER NOTES

Use a map relevant to learners' city or a well-known city where possible — familiarity increases confidence and authenticity. Digital map tools can be used if devices are available. Encourage spontaneous language over scripted responses.

Session 20: Bon Voyage!

Week 7 | Unit 4

Travel Planning, Comparing Options, and Itineraries

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Reading, Writing
Key Language	Future structures for plans ('We're going to... / I'm planning to...'); comparatives and superlatives; travel booking vocabulary
Materials	Printed travel booking screenshots; itinerary template; hotel/flight comparison task sheet; travel scenario cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use future structures to describe and discuss travel plans
- Compare travel options using comparative and superlative language
- Write a simple travel itinerary with key logistical information

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners plan and describe a 3-day trip in spoken and written form
- Learners compare two travel options using at least 6 comparative structures
- Learners read and extract key information from a travel booking scenario

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Where Would You Go?': class world map on the board (or digital projection). Learners add a dot or sticker to 3 places they'd want to visit. Brief share: one sentence each explaining their first choice.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach travel vocabulary: itinerary, layover, accommodation, check-in/out, budget, peak season, travel insurance. Introduce future structures for plans. Model comparing two flights or hotel options using comparative and superlative forms.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners receive two travel packages to the same destination with different prices, amenities, and logistics. They must choose the better option and write a justification using at least 3 comparative sentences. Share with a partner.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Travel Agent' role play: Learner A is a client with specific needs (budget, preferences, dates). Learner B is a travel agent recommending and explaining options. Teacher circulates and prompts use of target language. Switch roles.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Each learner shares in one sentence the most interesting real or imaginary trip they have taken or plan to take. Brief vocabulary wrap-up: which travel words came up most in conversation?

TEACHER NOTES

Be sensitive to the fact that some learners may not travel frequently due to economic constraints or visa barriers. Frame travel planning as a language exercise — hypothetical and aspirational. All destinations, including domestic, are equally valid.

Session 21: Arrivals & Departures

Week 7 | Unit 4

Airports, Hotels, and Transport Interactions

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening
Key Language	Functional phrases for travel contexts (check-in, customs, hotel reception); polite problem-solving ('I'm afraid there's been a mistake...')
Materials	Airport and hotel dialogue cards; functional phrase bank; listening comprehension task (audio or transcript); simulation station cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use functional language to navigate common travel situations confidently
- Understand key information in simulated travel announcements and interactions
- Handle an unexpected travel problem using polite, assertive communication

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners successfully complete a check-in or hotel interaction role play
- Learners extract key details from a travel-context listening task
- Learners politely report a problem and request a solution in a travel scenario

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Airport Charades': learners take turns miming common airport actions — checking in, going through security, losing luggage, sleeping at the gate. Others guess. Kinesthetic, fun, activates vocabulary.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach functional language for: airport check-in ('I have one bag to check.');

customs ('The purpose of my visit is...');

hotel reception ('I have a reservation under...');

transport ('What time does the next train leave?'). Highlight polite problem-solving language for disruptions.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners read or listen to a travel dialogue and answer comprehension questions. Then reconstruct the dialogue from key phrases provided on cards. Act it out.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Travel simulation: 3 stations in the room — airport check-in desk, hotel reception, and lost luggage desk. Each station has a problem to solve. Learners rotate and interact with a partner playing the role of staff.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Travel Survival Phrases': class votes on the 5 most useful phrases from today. Teacher writes them on the board. Learners photograph or note them.

TEACHER NOTES

Keep scenarios realistic and practical. Include situations involving delays, cancellations, and miscommunication — these are the moments when functional language is most needed. Make the simulation as physical and immersive as possible.

Session 22: Lost in Translation

Week 8 | Unit 4

Cultural Differences in Communication Styles

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Reading, Listening
Key Language	Comparison language ('In contrast... / While in X culture... / On the other hand...'); hedging language; intercultural vocabulary
Materials	Intercultural miscommunication scenario cards; adapted reading on communication styles; comparison sentence frame sheet; discussion cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Identify key differences in communication styles across cultures
- Discuss cultural differences using appropriate comparative and hedging language
- Develop strategies for successful communication in intercultural contexts

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners compare two communication cultures using at least 5 comparative sentences
- Learners identify a miscommunication rooted in cultural difference and propose a solution
- Learners discuss their own intercultural communication experiences using target language

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Culture Shock Moments': learners briefly share a time when they were confused or surprised by something someone from another culture said or did. Teacher normalises: 'This is what makes communication fascinating.'

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Introduce concepts: direct vs. indirect communication; high-context vs. low-context cultures; role of silence, formality, and touch in communication. Use examples from learners' own cultures where possible. Teach comparative and hedging structures for discussing culture without stereotyping.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners read 3 short intercultural miscommunication scenarios and identify: what went wrong? Which cultural assumption caused the issue? What could each person have done differently? Pair discussion.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Cross-Cultural Advisory Board': groups take on the role of communication consultants advising a company about working with a new international partner. They must discuss communication norms and suggest strategies. Debrief: what language was most effective?

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Class 'Communication Insights Map': each learner contributes one thing they've learned about communication across cultures. Recorded on the board. Close with: 'What would you add from your own culture?'

TEACHER NOTES

Avoid stereotyping — always frame culture as influential, not deterministic. Position learners as genuine informants of their own cultures. This is one of the most naturally engaging sessions for diverse multilingual groups.

Session 23: A Taste of the World

Week 8 | Unit 4

Global Food Cultures, Customs, and Dining Etiquette

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Vocabulary, Listening
Key Language	Passive voice for traditions ('Tea is served after...'); present simple for cultural facts; respectful question language ('Is it customary to...?')
Materials	Cultural food customs cards; world food map; discussion prompts; audio/video clip on dining customs (optional)

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Describe food customs and dining etiquette from different cultures
- Use the passive voice to describe cultural traditions accurately
- Ask and answer respectful questions about cultural food practices

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners describe a food custom from their own culture using at least 4 sentences
- Learners produce 3+ passive voice sentences about cultural traditions
- Learners sustain a respectful discussion about dining customs for 3+ minutes

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Dining Etiquette True or False?': 6 real facts about eating customs around the world (e.g., 'In Japan, slurping noodles is considered a compliment.' / 'In Ethiopia, it is common to eat from a shared plate.'). Learners guess, then reveal. Brief class reactions.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach passive voice in the context of cultural customs: 'Hands are washed before meals.' / 'Tea is offered to all guests.' Introduce food and culture vocabulary: ritual, tradition, communal eating, hospitality, etiquette. Share examples from 4–5 different cultural contexts.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners match food customs to countries on a global map task. Then rewrite 5 active sentences in the passive voice. Peer check and correct.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Food Ambassador' presentations: each learner prepares and delivers a 2-minute spoken presentation about a food custom or dish from their own culture. Others listen and ask 2 follow-up questions.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Foods I Want to Try': each learner names one dish from a classmate's culture they'd like to try and gives a reason. Round-the-class share. Warm, positive close.

TEACHER NOTES

Leverage the cultural diversity of your class as the primary resource. All food cultures are treated with equal curiosity and respect. Avoid privileging any one culinary tradition. Be mindful of dietary restrictions when any food samples are used.

Session 24: Unit 4 Review & Travel Simulation

Week 8 | Unit 4

Applying Unit 4 Language in a Full Travel Scenario

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	All four skills (integrated)
Key Language	Unit 4 review: directions, travel vocabulary, intercultural language, functional travel phrases
Materials	Travel simulation scenario packs; peer assessment cards; station instruction sheets; Unit 4 vocabulary prompt cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Apply travel, navigation, and intercultural communication language in an integrated simulation
- Demonstrate Unit 4 vocabulary and structures across different real-world travel contexts
- Reflect on intercultural communication development and identify practical strategies

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners complete a full travel simulation involving navigation, booking, airport, and cultural interaction tasks
- Learners successfully deploy taught language across all Unit 4 themes
- Learners identify 5 phrases they found most useful across Unit 4 and can explain why

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCE

WARM-UP 15 minutes

Quick Unit 4 vocabulary chain: learners sit in a circle. Teacher says a word; the next learner must say a related word and explain the connection. Any word from Unit 4 is valid. Energetic, interactive.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teacher briefly recaps top 3 language points from Units 4 sessions. Introduces the day's simulation: 'You are all travelling together to an English-speaking city for a professional conference. Your journey begins now.'

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Simulation Phase 1: learners navigate from the airport to their hotel using directions, asking for help, and handling a small problem at check-in. All in English.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Simulation Phase 2: learners attend a cultural networking dinner where they must make small talk, navigate cultural differences, and recommend local experiences to each other.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'My Travel Communication Toolkit': each learner writes 5 phrases from Unit 4 they found most useful. Share 3 with the class. 'What would you do differently as a traveller now?'

TEACHER NOTES

This is one of the most memorable and engaging sessions of the programme. Make it as immersive as possible — rearrange furniture, add props if available, encourage learners to stay in character. Celebrate the creativity and language spontaneity that emerges.

UNIT 5

SPEAK YOUR MIND

Weeks 9–10 | 6 Sessions | 12 Contact Hours

Critical expression, opinion-giving, debate, storytelling, recommendations, and presentations

UNIT GOAL:

Empower learners to express themselves confidently and persuasively in English — giving opinions, constructing arguments, telling stories, and delivering presentations — with accuracy, fluency, and rhetorical awareness.

Session 25: What Do You Think?

Week 9 | Unit 5

Expressing Opinions and Agreeing or Disagreeing Politely

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening
Key Language	Opinion structures ('In my view... / Personally, I think...'); agreement/disagreement phrases; hedging ('It depends on...')
Materials	Opinion statement cards; agree/disagree visual spectrum; discussion observation sheet; model dialogue transcript

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use a range of opinion structures to express personal views clearly
- Agree and disagree politely using appropriate discourse markers
- Support a spoken opinion with reasons and examples in a natural exchange

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners express an opinion using 5+ different structures
- Learners politely disagree and propose an alternative viewpoint
- Learners participate in a 5-minute opinion discussion using appropriate turn-taking

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Opinion Spectrum': teacher reads 5 provocative-but-safe statements (e.g., 'Working from home is better for productivity.'). Learners physically move to one end of the room for 'agree' and the other for 'disagree'. Each must explain their position in 1 sentence.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach opinion structures on a formality scale: from 'I think...' to 'From my perspective...' to 'It is my firm belief that...'. Introduce agreement phrases (strong to polite) and disagreement phrases (strong to diplomatic). Model a short conversation using all three. Highlight hedging: 'It really depends on...' / 'That may be true, but...'

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

In groups of 3, learners discuss 3 given topics using only taught opinion and response phrases. A fourth learner observes and notes which phrases each person used. Feedback round.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Open group discussion: learners choose 2 topics from a prompt deck. They discuss for 5 minutes each with minimal teacher support. Teacher circulates, monitoring use of target language.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'My Favourite Phrase': each learner identifies one opinion phrase they feel most comfortable using and explains why. Teacher compiles a class favourite phrases list on the board.

TEACHER NOTES

Start with lower-stakes opinions (lifestyle, food, entertainment) before progressing to complex social topics. Build confidence incrementally. Ensure all opinions are welcomed and modelled without favouritism or judgement.

Session 26: Let's Debate

Week 9 | Unit 5

Structuring Arguments and Debating Everyday Adult Topics

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening, Critical Thinking
Key Language	Argument structure ('First of all... / Furthermore... / To conclude...'); counterargument language ('While that may be true..., I would argue that...'); persuasion phrases
Materials	Debate motion cards; argument planning sheet; peer scoring rubric; debate rules poster

- Structure a spoken argument using sequencing and linking language
- Respond to a counterargument using appropriate discourse markers
- Participate in a structured class debate with preparation and spontaneous contributions

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners deliver a 90-second prepared argument on a given topic
- Learners identify and respond coherently to a counterargument
- Learners participate in a full structured debate using taught language

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Hot Takes': teacher shares a confident but lighthearted opinion (e.g., 'Weekends should be 3 days.'). Learners argue for or against using last session's language. Fast, fun, raises energy.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach debate structure: opening position → supporting points (3) → counterargument acknowledgement → conclusion. Introduce persuasion phrases: 'The evidence suggests...' / 'Consider this...' / 'It is undeniable that...' Model a short prepared argument on a neutral topic.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Pair preparation: each pair receives a motion and must prepare 3 arguments for AND 3 arguments against (regardless of personal view). Then pairs debate each other using the taught structure. Peer scoring on structure and language.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Class debate: teacher announces a motion (e.g., 'Adults learn better online than in classrooms.'). Teams are assigned positions. Structured 20-minute debate: opening statements, rebuttals, free discussion, closing statements.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Debrief: 'Who changed your mind? What language was most persuasive? Which argument structure was most effective?' Record insights on board.

TEACHER NOTES

Choose debate motions that are adult-relevant but not politically divisive. Ideal topics: work-life balance, technology, education, urban vs. rural living, AI in the workplace. Avoid religion, party politics, or deeply personal identity topics.

Session 27: Story Time

Week 9 | Unit 5

Telling Personal Anecdotes and Narrative Stories

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening, Writing
Key Language	Narrative tenses (past simple, past continuous, past perfect); sequencing language; 'All of a sudden... / Just as... / Looking back...'
Materials	Narrative arc structure guide; storytelling prompt cards; model anecdote (audio or script); peer response sheet

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use narrative tenses correctly to tell a chronological personal story
- Structure an anecdote using sequencing and narrative language
- Engage a listener using expressive language and storytelling techniques

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners tell a 3-minute personal anecdote using all three narrative tenses
- Learners use 5+ sequencing phrases in their spoken narrative
- Learners respond to a classmate's story with 2 relevant follow-up questions

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

Teacher tells a personal, funny, or interesting anecdote. Learners listen and identify: at least 2 past simple uses, 1 past continuous, and 1 past perfect tense. Quick show of hands to compare findings. Informal grammar review through listening.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach narrative structure: Setting → Complication → Action → Resolution → Reflection. Introduce a visual timeline for narrative tenses. Demonstrate how past continuous sets the scene ('I was sitting at my desk when...') and past perfect provides background ('I had just finished my lunch...'). Model adding tension and humour.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners receive a prompt card ('Tell about a time you made an embarrassing mistake.' / 'Tell about an unexpected encounter.'). They draft their story using the narrative structure — writing 5 key sentences. Partners give one piece of feedback on tense use.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Story Circle': learners tell their stories to a group of 3. Listeners must ask 2 genuine follow-up questions and identify their favourite moment. Each group votes for the story that used the most engaging language.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Storytelling Superpowers': class identifies the best techniques heard today — vocabulary, tension-building, sequencing, humour. Add to the class language wall.

TEACHER NOTES

Storytelling is a high-engagement, emotionally resonant activity. Allow learners to choose stories that are positive, funny, or meaningful. Never prompt learners to share difficult memories. Accept all story types — adventure, mistake, discovery, childhood memory.

Session 28: Highly Recommend*Week 10 | Unit 5Making Spoken and Written Recommendations

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Writing
Key Language	Recommendation structures ('You've got to try... / If you're looking for..., I'd suggest...'); enthusiasm language; reasons and supporting detail
Materials	Recommendation sentence frame set; topic prompt cards; 'class recommendation wall' poster; peer feedback checklist

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Use a variety of recommendation structures to suggest books, places, apps, or experiences
- Support a recommendation with clear, specific reasons and relevant personal detail
- Respond to recommendations with engagement, follow-up questions, and natural agreement

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners deliver a 2-minute spoken recommendation with structure and enthusiasm
- Learners use 6+ different recommendation phrases
- Learners write a structured written recommendation of 80–100 words

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Best Recommendation You Ever Received': round-the-class quick share. What was it? (A book, place, recipe, film, habit.) Did you follow it? Did it work? Light, personal, activates experience.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach recommendation structures across a strength scale: 'It's quite good...' → 'I'd recommend...' → 'You absolutely have to...' Discuss the importance of specificity: not just 'it's good' but why, for whom, and when. Model giving a recommendation with supporting detail vs. without.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners write a spoken recommendation using a provided template (topic + reason + who it's best for + one caveat). Partner listens and gives structured feedback: 'I understood your reason / I wasn't sure who this is for / I'd like to know more about...'

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Top Recommendations': each learner presents their top recommendation (book, place, experience, app, food, habit) in a 2-minute spoken slot. Class asks at least 1 question after each. Class adds favourites to a shared 'Recommendation Wall.'

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

'Best of the Room' wall: teacher displays all recommendations and class votes on 3 they'd most want to follow up. Each learner writes their recommendation as a polished 80–100 word paragraph.

TEACHER NOTES

Encourage learners to go beyond generic, safe recommendations. Push for specificity and genuine personal connection. The written output can be used as portfolio evidence. This session bridges informal fluency with structured written language.

Session 29: Take the Floor*Week 10 | Unit 5Delivering a Short Structured Presentation

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	Speaking, Listening
Key Language	Presentation discourse ('Today I'll be covering...'); signposting ('Moving on... / To summarise... / What's key here is...'); hedging and emphasis
Materials	Presentation structure guide; signposting phrase bank; self-assessment rubric; peer feedback cards

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Structure and deliver a 3–4 minute presentation on a familiar topic
- Use signposting and transition language to guide the audience through content
- Open and close a presentation with professional, appropriate language

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners deliver a coherent, structured presentation with an opening, body, and conclusion
- Learners use 5+ signposting phrases during their presentation
- Learners provide specific, constructive oral feedback to a classmate's presentation

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Best and Worst Presentation I've Ever Seen': learners share a memorable presentation experience (as audience or speaker). What made it good or terrible? Class collects the key characteristics.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

Teach presentation structure: opening (hook + topic + preview) → body (2–3 points with transitions) → conclusion (summary + closing statement). Introduce signposting phrases. Highlight common errors: reading from notes, no eye contact, speaking too quickly. Show or describe a model presentation.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Learners plan a 3-minute presentation on a topic they know well (hobby, skill, favourite place, personal project). They write an outline using the provided structure and rehearse with a partner — partner gives 2 pieces of feedback on clarity and signposting.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

Presentation Day: each learner presents to their group (3–4 people). Listeners complete peer feedback cards: one thing done well, one suggestion. Teacher circulates and takes notes for a final whole-group feedback round.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Whole-class debrief: 'What did you learn today that will make you a stronger presenter?' Teacher adds 3 takeaways to the board. Acknowledge every learner's courage in presenting.

TEACHER NOTES

Some learners may have significant presentation anxiety. Normalise this openly: 'Most people feel nervous. The goal is communication, not perfection.' Offer a choice of audience size — individual, small group, or full class — based on learner comfort.

Session 30: That's a Wrap!*Week 10 | Unit 5Reflection, Celebration, and Programme Closure

Duration	2 Hours (120 minutes)
CEFR Level	A2 – B1
Skills	All skills — reflective and celebratory
Key Language	Reflective language ('I've learned that... / I used to... but now I can... / What surprised me was...'); gratitude and appreciation structures
Materials	Reflection worksheet; language portfolio summary sheet; course feedback form; celebratory activity (e.g., class compliment cards)

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Reflect on personal language growth across the 10-week programme
- Express achievements and challenges using appropriate reflective language
- Celebrate communicative success in a supportive and meaningful final session

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Learners articulate 3 concrete communication skills they have developed
- Learners write a reflective summary of their learning journey using target language
- Learners leave with a completed language portfolio and personalised next steps

INSTRUCTIONAL SEQUENCEWARM-UP 15 minutes

'Class Highlights Reel': teacher or learners share their favourite activities, phrases, debates, or stories from the 10 weeks. Light, nostalgic, celebratory. Let learners lead this moment.

PRESENTATION / INPUT 25 minutes

'Look How Far You've Come': show learners the Week 1 Session 1 task (social media bio) and ask them to redo it — in 5 minutes, write a new bio. Compare: what's different? What language do they have now that they didn't before? Let them see their own growth.

GUIDED PRACTICE 30 minutes

Language Portfolio completion: learners compile their best pieces of work from across 10 weeks, annotate them with brief reflections, and write a personal 'language biography': where they started, what they've developed, and where they want to go next.

FREE PRACTICE & COMMUNICATIVE TASK 35 minutes

'Class Showcase': each learner shares one highlight from the course — a sentence they're proud of, a moment of success, a skill they've gained. Applause after each. Then written messages of encouragement: each learner writes one kind, specific sentence on a card for a classmate.

WRAP-UP & REFLECTION 15 minutes

Programme close: teacher provides written feedback summaries for each learner. Share 'next steps' resources: recommended apps, YouTube channels, podcasts, or courses for continuing progress. End with a genuine acknowledgement of every person's journey.

TEACHER NOTES

Make this session genuinely celebratory. Acknowledge the effort it takes for adult learners to commit to a programme of this length. Avoid grades or comparative language. Offer concrete, individual next steps — not generic advice. End on a high note.

PROGRAMME ASSESSMENT CHECKLIST

To be completed by the teacher at the end of the programme. This checklist is designed to help you evaluate the overall success of the curriculum, the quality of instruction, and learner progress. Use it in conjunction with your session observation notes and learner portfolio evidence.

Teacher Name: _____ Programme Dates: _____
 _____ Group Level: A2 – B1

SECTION A: PROGRAMME GOALS & CURRICULUM ALIGNMENT

☐	The programme goals were clearly communicated to learners at the start of the course
☐	Sessions were consistently aligned to A2–B1 CEFR descriptors in terms of language complexity and task demand
☐	All five units were delivered in full across the 10-week period
☐	All 30 sessions were taught with the full 2-hour structure (Warm-Up → Presentation → Guided → Free Practice → Wrap-Up)
☐	Unit themes remained relevant and engaging to adult learners throughout the programme
☐	Connections were made across units where appropriate (e.g., professional communication linked to travel or digital contexts)

SECTION B: INSTRUCTIONAL QUALITY

☐	Each session included a meaningful communicative task where learners used language for authentic purposes
☐	Teacher talk time (TTT) was kept proportionally lower than learner talk time (LTT) in most sessions
☐	Error correction was used strategically — immediate for form-focused activities, delayed for fluency tasks
☐	Teacher modelled language before asking learners to produce it independently
☐	All four skills (reading, writing, listening, speaking) were addressed across the programme
☐	Feedback was specific, actionable, and framed positively
☐	Differentiation was used to support both A2 and B1 learners within mixed-level sessions
☐	Cultural sensitivity was maintained throughout — materials and examples represented diverse backgrounds

SECTION C: LEARNER COMMUNICATIVE PROGRESS

☐	Learners demonstrated measurable growth in spoken fluency across the 10 weeks
--------------------------	---

☐	Learners used Unit vocabulary independently in free practice tasks by the end of each unit
☐	Learners could hold a 4+ minute conversation on a familiar topic by Week 6
☐	Learners showed improved ability to express and support opinions (Unit 5 benchmark)
☐	Learners produced structured writing (emails, reviews, bios, recommendations) at an appropriate level
☐	Learners demonstrated improved listening comprehension of natural English speech
☐	Learners showed greater willingness to initiate and sustain conversation by end of programme
☐	Learners demonstrated awareness of register and adjusted their language for different contexts

SECTION D: UNIT-SPECIFIC LANGUAGE OUTCOMES

☐	UNIT 1 — Learners can describe themselves online and communicate appropriately in digital contexts
☐	UNIT 1 — Learners use present simple/perfect and modals confidently in digital communication tasks
☐	UNIT 2 — Learners can write a professional email and participate in a workplace interaction
☐	UNIT 2 — Learners use appropriate professional register consistently in written and spoken tasks
☐	UNIT 3 — Learners discuss lifestyle topics (food, wellness, home, style) with relevant vocabulary
☐	UNIT 3 — Learners express preferences and opinions using hedged, natural language
☐	UNIT 4 — Learners navigate travel interactions and explain directions clearly
☐	UNIT 4 — Learners discuss cultural differences respectfully using comparative language
☐	UNIT 5 — Learners give a structured opinion and respond to counterarguments
☐	UNIT 5 — Learners deliver a short presentation using signposting and discourse markers

SECTION E: MATERIALS AND RESOURCES

☐	Materials used were authentic or adapted from real-world sources where possible
☐	All materials were appropriate for adult learners (content, tone, cultural relevance)
☐	Varied activity formats were used across the programme (individual, pair, group, whole class)
☐	Materials addressed diverse professional and personal contexts relevant to adult life

☐	Supplementary materials were added or adapted when session content needed adjustment
☐	Digital or multimedia resources were used where available and beneficial

SECTION F: LEARNER ENGAGEMENT AND WELLBEING

☐	Learners attended sessions regularly and engaged actively in activities
☐	The classroom environment was safe, inclusive, and respectful throughout the programme
☐	Learners felt comfortable making mistakes and taking communicative risks
☐	Sensitive topics (mental health, finances, cultural identity) were handled with care and professionalism
☐	Learners were given autonomy and choice where possible (topics, discussion questions, project themes)
☐	All learners were encouraged and recognised for their individual contributions

SECTION G: ASSESSMENT AND EVIDENCE

☐	Informal formative assessment (exit cards, observation, peer feedback) was embedded in each session
☐	Learner portfolios were compiled and include evidence from at least 3 different units
☐	Learner self-assessment was conducted at the end of Units 1, 3, and 5
☐	Teacher kept session observation notes to track individual learner development
☐	The Unit Review sessions (S6, S12, S18, S24, S30) were used to collect integrated assessment evidence
☐	Feedback given to learners was aligned to programme objectives, not solely grammar accuracy
☐	Evidence of progress was shared with learners in Session 30

SECTION H: OVERALL PROGRAMME EVALUATION

☐	The 10-week programme achieved its stated programme goals
☐	Learners left the programme with stronger communicative competence than they arrived with
☐	The curriculum design supported language development systematically across 5 thematic units
☐	I would use or recommend this programme for another adult A2–B1 cohort
☐	I have identified sessions or units to refine for future delivery

I have shared learner progress documentation with the relevant academic coordinator or institution
